

Please keep NJ's Do Not Call List in effect. Even though I'm registered I still get at least two phone calls a day for donations. At least the credit card companies have stopped!